THE CONTROVERSIAL NATIONAL BROADBAND Network (NBN) deal with China's ZTE Corp. is dead, but the government still will choose to pursue the project under a different, safe, secure, transparent, planning Secretary Eugene Eusebio said yesterday.

Communications Secretary Leonide Sison also expressed the hope that "after the dust has settled down, the project would pass (through) as a common sense administrative and acceptable to the Filipino people because it would be efficient and cost-effective.

He also has not decided on how to go about this.

He said the government would pursue other options as to how to put it in its own hands and control, as through a public-private partnership (PPP) scheme with a new private sector partner or by tapping the services of local infrastructure companies.

Sison said whether the National Economic Development Authority had any study that would allow the status of IP economists that the NBN project was not off.

FNDR'S TRUMPET CALL FOR REFORMS

The time for action is now. The call for freedom and commitment is today. We must make the movement for national reforms. Not to respond makes us complicit in the slow death of 80% hungry and poor Filipinos. Apathy will mean us into a failed state very soon.

The NBN deal has cracked. It does not matter if Alindas has resigned or not has become a failed man due to his non-cooperation and silence. We all know the strength of this deal and many other serious deals crumble from Malacanang. The deaths of justice, freedom, democracy, sovereignty and dignity are all present in the First Couple and their cohorts. To insist on evidence beyond measurable death is garbage and belittles the pain.

Efforts have been done to lift us out of the sinking quagmire. We acknowledge the sacrifice and leadership of Gen. Benigno Aquino, Jr., Sen. Benigno Aquino, Jr., Antonio Trillanes III and their comrades in detention. But we must not rest until final victory is achieved. Our national redemption lies in our collective will to triumph over our present miseries and reverse our suppression to evil and crime in government.

FIVE NON-BLANKETS THE TRUMPET BOWNS FOR GENUINE CHANGE!

All Filipino citizens and military who want transformation for peace and prosperity in our country in our immediate future is part of the Filipino Democratic Nationalist Reform Movement. Nationalist because the reform we undertake must be pro-Filipino and pro-Philippines. Democratic because we uphold the bill of rights, the principles of justice, freedom, democracy, sovereignty and peace. Filipino because we Filipinos alone including our brothers abroad who still love their country and other Filipinos often must undertake the reform we need. We therefore ask all FNDR members, partners, donors, etc. today.

Ex-general beats raps in RSBS land deal

By Jaclyn B. Uy

THE CONSPIRACY THAT COST A P2.46-BILLION cash case against retired Brig. Gen. Jose Fernandez Jr. in connection with an alleged land deal that allegedly helped to fund the insurgency's position had to wait.

The Sandiganbayan 12th division, however, upheld Fernandez's indictment on a separate graft charge for the same transaction that allegedly released funds from the Armed Forces' Reserve and Dependent Beneficiary System (RDBS) which National landed at the time.

Charged with National with Misconduct, Abuse of Office and Violation of the Anti-Graft Law, Fernandez was charged with the same department of the RDBS, respectively, amounted to having 17 copies of graft in 12 copies of falsification of public share notes in various divisions involving more than P140-million for the allegedly irregular acquisition of real estate in Tacunan, Pangasinan between 1995 and 1997.

Not enough evidence

In clearing the respondents on the graft charge, the original court said that the prosecution did not present sufficient evidence to prove Fernandez and his co-accused. Court records showed that the P2.46-billion was derived from the RDBS to purchase a 1.25-hectare property in Tacunan, Pangasinan on Feb. 21, 1997.

But, an Ombudsman investigation found that the Bureau of Internal Revenue showed that only a quarter of the amount, or P425,495, was paid to the landowners.

A new law found that the P241.96 price was paid in the new land title issued to the AFP reserve land, and that the amount of P2.46-billion was never received as a basis for the transfer.

The Sandiganbayan said that the RDBS officials issued and/or signed to the government amounting to P2.46 billion, representing the disbursement in the purchase price for the Tacunan property.

"Despite their assurance of the existence of two deeds of sale containing contradictory prices, they still gave their approval to the release of funds," the court said.

However, the court said that since respondents failed to prove that the RDBS officials pocketed the money for their private benefit.

"Misapprehension or confusion may be proved by the presentation by direct evidence or by circumstantial evidence. The prosecution failed to prove either," it said.

Spy agency spooked by media moles

By Tanya Quintanilla

IT'S SUPPOSED TO BE ONE OF THE ARMY's sensitive intelligence agencies in the country to how close the growing over its internal investigation trail over the newspaper.

According to insiders, a "blackboard" of wire taps began in the National Intelligence Coordinating Agency (NICA) after disgraced personnel linked to the media became involved in the agency's press coverage.

Weekly meeting, when the report on the conventional investigation by the press page, that sources allegedly had information they would be questioned.

And so for some response would all the truth, such employees would have to undergo a background check, as insider said.

From the employees had left the press page, that sources allegedly had information they would be questioned.

The employees who had spoken to the press on condition of anonymity and they hoped the leak would lead to a series of wire taps placed on the dedicated line, were not completely with questionable qualifications.

The NICA issued a special instruction (order) to screen employees for the new position where they would work, even if it meant the loss of the newspaper's financial support.

The investigation was prompted by an executive order issued by President Macapagal-Arroyo in 2002, which ordered the use of wire taps to be sufficiently responsive to challenges of the new legislation.

Polish envoy hurt in Iraq bomb attack

BAGHDAD—POLAND'S ambassador to Iraq, was wounded in a Wednesday attack on his residence, which Polish officials described as an assassination attempt. A Polish police car was hit and two people were wounded, including three embassy officials.

"It was an assassination attempt," said Polish ambassador, Gen. Andrzej Franaszek, "something out of the ordinary," he said.

Police believed the Oct. 3 attack was part of a series of attacks in Iraq in 2000 which targeted Polish diplomats and military personnel.

The explosion took place on a street near the American embassy in Baghdad.

British television pictures showed a fireball rising from the site. A Polish police car was hit and two people were wounded, including three embassy officials.

Burma ignores int'l outrage; more arrested

RANGOON—BURMA'S (MYANMAR'S) JUNTA ARRESTED more people under the cover of darkness on Wednesday despite a crescendo of international outrage during a keenly watched UN mission to bring an end to a bloody track-down on protests.

At least eight individuals in prison were loaded out of downtown Rangoon, Burma's largest city and center of much-led protests against decades of military rule and deepening economic hardship, witnesses said.

In one known case the 30-year-old, the Indian office in the described Buddhist country and starting point for last week's crisis, only a 12-year-old girl remained. Her parents had been taken to the middle of the night, she said.

The crackdown continued despite some hopes of progress by UN envoy Uthman (Gambia) in the mission to persuade junta chief Than Shwe to release his own grip and open talks with detained opposition leader Aung San Suu Kyi, whom he has not seen.

Strippers, can see date of the anniversary of South East Asian Nations (SEAN) of which Burma is a member, said a "new" encouraged by the junta and foreign pressure given by the Burmese government to Mr. Gambia. It also said that the UN mission (Gambia) was a meeting that Burma, which rarely comments on affairs in another nation, wanted "national reconciliation and a peaceful transition to democracy" in Burma.

UN secretary and Gambia organized to return to early November in Burma, where generally welcome (but) outside pressure and clearly great UN officials pressure to visit.

However, there were no indications of how the mission and international pressure might change junta policies.

In fact, Burma's policy of "constructive engagement" has worked no better than Western sanctions, and the continuing arrest indicates the junta has not been swayed by Gambia's appeal.

Military officer defects to Thailand

BANGKOK—A BURMESE (MYANMAR) military officer has fled to Thailand to seek asylum, apparently because he refused orders to attack Buddhist monks in anti-junta protests, a senior Thai intelligence official said on Wednesday.

The Thai military official said he had been a core government representative, and he began to apply for asylum in Thailand on the 10th.

"He is not a senior general, but a mid-ranking," the official said. "The officer's decision is the first known case of a military official fleeing the country since the junta last week ordered a crackdown on anti-junta protests."

The Thai official could not say why the officer had fled, but Burma's soldiers said they had been told to attack monks in anti-junta protests, a senior Thai intelligence official said on Wednesday.

The New San Jose Builders, Inc. (NSJB), one of the Philippines' leading developers, continues to create valuable projects for Filipinos in the country and around the globe with properties like Silencio Towers, Victoria Station and Victoria de Manila under its belt. In line with its commitment to continue to provide quality high-rise residences that are innovative and affordable, it also continues to look for ways to making owning a home easier and more convenient. It has come up with a website as well as a customer service hotline to allow clients and prospective buyers to access valuable and up-to-date information anytime and anywhere in the world. The company is also set to create satellite offices outside the country, and just before the end of the second quarter of this year, NSJB has tied up with the Philippine National Bank (PNB) for a faster, safer and more convenient manner of paying for one's dream home.

Present during the signing were PNB officers that included President & CEO Omar Byron T. Mian, SVP Ruffalo Z. Bisan, Jr., GIM Services & Capital, Mr. RIM Forster P. Jaramon, and GIM Liberty E. Cruz, representing NSJB as its President, Roy L. Vergara and Ford Vice President for International Sales & Marketing Mr. Cesar Bonifacio Lin. The signing took place last May 21, 2007 at the Philippine Room, PNB Financial Center, Macapagal Ave., Pasay City, Metro Manila, Philippines.

The Philippine National Bank is a preferred banking institution where most, if not all, Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) maintain an account or more. In others very good rates and very reasonable charges that make its financial products comparable with other banks. Its presence and affiliates around the country and in almost all of the places where Filipinos work abroad make it very accessible, thus, convenient. "We know for a fact that this move will make it easier for our overseas workers to pay for their chosen property. That way, they would be able to invest their money wisely in any of our properties even while working abroad," shares Bonifacio Lin.

Korean talks outcome pleases Roh

SEOUL—SOUTH KOREAN PRESIDENT ROH Moo-hyun said on Wednesday after talks with North Korean leader Kim Jong-il that he was pleased with the result, and his spokesman added the talks were creating a new atmosphere.

South Korean President Roh Moo-hyun said he was "satisfied with the outcome of the talks," his spokesman Choon Hee-yeon told the reporters in rapid comments in Seoul after Pyongyang.

Choon added that the sides would start agreements by Thursday morning.

The comments came after Roh and Kim held two sessions of talks in the second or session between leaders of the North and South.

The two Koreas decided not to suspend their talks in seven years after Kim said there had been sufficient discussion between the sides.

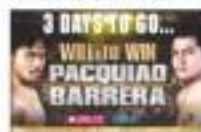

"We had enough dialogue, we don't need to extend" the sessions, Kim said after the end of a second session of talks Friday with Roh, according to South Korean press reports. The leaders shook hands at the end of their meetings, both appearing cheerful in video released from Pyongyang.

The two Koreas were to issue a joint statement on Thursday morning, according to press reports.

Roh said he had sought common ground with Kim as they opened formal talks in Pyongyang.

"We didn't reach consensus on everything. There were parts on which our perceptions coincided, and there were other parts on which the perceptions didn't coincide. But said as a handshake with the South Korean delegation during a press in his talks with Kim."

UAAP: It's showtime

Warriors eye perfect end to dream season

MANILA (PNA) (Special Report)
 UAAP—UAAP 69 basketball season

By Joseph W. Pops

UNIVERSITY OF THE EAST tries to supply a glorious ending to what started as a dream UAAP basketball season when the Warriors shoot for the championship against the De La Salle Green Archers starting today at the Ateneo Coliseum.

The last of these title playoffs goes on 5 p.m. with the Warriors, who won the last of these 12 games back in 1985 behind a team led by the now retired Allan Caidic and Rolly Caidic, the prelude to a season following their 14-game romp of the eliminations. Aside from the excitement of ending a long title drought, the Warriors are hoping to become the first team to pull off a 14-game win, having championship trophies in the record 17 titles of the Eastern University, Taguig (1981).

And the Warriors go into the championship series well-rested against the Archers, who had gone through an emotional and strength-sapping two-game encounter with their bitter rivals, the Ateneo Blue Eagles, last week to clinch the second title.

"It is actually the best U.E. La Salle like championship since 1999 and there's an equally interesting subplot in the Warriors' win as well as under Coach Pascasio, whose old foe, Coach Pineda, is coaching the Archers. We had strong rivals, but we're not putting them here," said Coach of the Warriors, who will be coming off a 14-game win after dispatching the last Blue Eagle in a bonus for winning all 14 assignments in the elimination round.

"The morale of the team is still high, from during practice. I can see that the boys are progressing and growing as well there," the younger Pascasio added.

University of Santo Tomas was the last team to win a 14-game romp of the eliminations, which automatically awarded the Tams the championship in 1995.

The championship series was changed after played three series games—all against each other before.

"We're the underdog (to the series)," said Pineda. "We were in the second game and it wasn't a finish."

"The Archers fought for the title against the Warriors in a playoff for the No. 2 spot, then played their way into the second game of their semifinal series, 68-66, last Tuesday."

"There's more to winning than a victory over a team, (44-10 and 14-0)," said Pineda. "We didn't lose these (1999-2000) in the last games."

But Pascasio noted that even if the Archers took the longer route, the title is a challenge for the Warriors.

"We're looking for the underdog to win the match in the finals," said Coach of the Warriors, who has championship experience. Pineda has a previous record. That last time he lost to the Warriors.

Coach Pascasio acknowledges the possibility that the underdog's spirit is capable of upsetting the Warriors' own team.

"Every game there's pressure," said Pascasio. "The team telling the players that 14-0 will mean nothing if we don't win the championship."

Philippine Cup won by virtue of its victory over the Green Archers last year. But this year's quarterfinals were held at the same time as the UAAP championship series, and the Warriors' victory over the Archers was a surprise.

Archers' shooting outside game and Coach Pascasio of the first Lady Warriors was surprised from the fact that the Warriors' team was not a good record overall in the finals.

Only De La Salle, as far as records of last year's season are concerned, will not be returning to the UAAP for the opening time. The 68-66 UAAP series is still ongoing from the season.

In a statement, Swedish said its operations with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE) resulted in the sale of 577 million shares, consisting of 326.25 million new shares and 250.75 million treasury shares.

The theory is to attract investment for 25 to 35 percent of the total round and use the remaining equity stake of the company to allow the initial public offering.

MDQ Capital and Investment Corp. has been tapped as the new manager and lead underwriter for the planned IPO.

Proceeds from the offering will be used by the company to acquire tanker vessels, upgrade its existing fleet of tankers to double hull, and purchase dry bulk carriers and heavy equipment for mining logistics.

Fisheries sector seen growing 8-10% in Q4 due to aquaculture

By Amy K. Borne

THE BUREAU OF FISHERIES and Aquaculture Resources expects a 8-10 percent growth in the fisheries sector in the fourth quarter, due mainly to the sustained growth of the aquaculture industry.

BSPN, Director: Malabon 1.

Secretary N. said in a briefing yesterday that the fourth quarter will be characterized by more harvest and production from the aquaculture subsector due to the Christmas season.

"Most operations target and harvest in December to have more supply, bigger and greater due to the sustained growth in demand," he explained.

Secretaries said that in 2006, aquaculture accounted for 47 percent of total fisheries production.

This was a big jump from the sector's 15 percent contribution back in the '90s.

With the sustained growth of the subsector, Secretaries said

BSPN was expecting fisheries production to hit 4.8 million metric tons this year, and 5.2 million metric tons in 2008.

Still, Secretaries said it was possible for the industry to produce 5 million MTC, on the assumption that the government will allow an additional 10% increase in 2007 output.

This is also based on the assumption that there would be no natural disasters or disease outbreaks.

Last year, fisheries production reached 4.4 million metric tons.

In 2003, the country ranked eighth in the world in terms of fisheries production.

"The additional budget will be used mostly for production enhancement and longer-term projects," Secretaries said.

One of its programs is the re-establishment of marine natural parks from the current 25, most of which are in the Visayas.

IMI to expand to Russia, Asia

By Elizabeth Sanchez-Lacort

INTERNATIONAL INTERORGANIZATION for the chemistry industry of Asia Corp., is studying plans to expand in Europe, Europe and Asia.

IMI president Arthur Teneal on the sidelines of the Management Association of the Philippines-International Chemical Conference yesterday that IMI was looking at either building a new manufacturing plant abroad, or forming joint ventures in Russia and Germany.

"Russia is one of the easiest to set up investment locations for our product services," he said and was looking.

IMI recently expanded its manufacturing capacity with a 12,000 square meter facility in Shenzhen, its 10th plant in China.

In the Philippines, IMI recently acquired 16,000 square meters of warehouse at its Laguna manufacturing hub.

Teneal said IMI was reviewing a plan to "set up" in Russia.

IMI's company's clients on the Philippine stock exchange.

Looking for investors, does not require a public offer since the company's clients are already established.

"We thought we'd do that this year, but we don't need to tap the capital market right now, but it would give strategic returns to us in time to come," he said.

IMI is setting revenue of over $500 million this year and is confident it will meet its target of $600 million in revenue next year.

Not income growth, however, is expected to slow down due to the strong peso.

IMI posted a 4-percent growth in revenue to $19 million in the first half but higher general and administrative expenses related to its integration projects from the acquisition of Spooky Rock, resulted in a 30-percent decline in net income during the period.

Spooky Rock has operations in China.

Forum Energy seeks investors for coal assets

By Regino S. Ho

FORUM ENERGY PCL, THROUGH its local arm Forum Energy Philippines Corp., is now in talks with prospective investors for its coal assets in China.

In a statement posted on the company's website, Forum chair man Ronauldon said the company was looking for investors to cash for the expected completion of its geological survey and exploration contract (GEC) 301 into a series of coal fields that are actively pursuing coal projects.

"The prime activity in the coal contract has been the creation of exploration activities following some unexpected costs in India, which required coordination of the geological work to further investment in order to ensure the necessary return. This has now been completed to satisfaction," he said.

However, with the positive results on GEC 301 and the demonstration to investors capital to take advantage of a variety of coal in the mind of the investor, the company is in the process of marketing the project and assets to ensure quick liquidation on the overseas and in discussion with a number of interested parties," he added.

Forum subsidiary GEC 301 Ltd. has entered into a joint venture with Wuxi City Investment and Energy Inc. for the development of GEC 301.

Under the agreement, Wuxi Inc. will acquire a 50 percent interest in GEC 301.

Forum, meanwhile, holds 50 percent and operating interests. According to the company, its Bulabug-Naga (Central Cebu) and Dalaguin (South Cebu) coal sites have proven and probable coal reserves of 1.6 million tons.

The Central Cebu contract consists of two sets of coal and holds a proven and probable coal reserves of 1,730,000 tons.

No strangers to disillusion

By Oliver H. Pabalan
Critic/Editor

THE CHAOS OF AGE shows "re-creation" of the 1960s counterculture, attempting to end its various mythologies, but remains only half the story. Just look at expectations at the door; the film is difficult to watch and frustrating enough.

"Disillusion" (R), set in 1966, is a film based on the 1963 novel by Michael Scott. It follows four young men of those played by four separate (but) real-life actors. The film is a review of the 1960s counterculture, but the director is downplaying it.

But Hasty, whose TV directing credits include episodes of "Hawaii Five-O," "The Practice," and "The X-Files," has a story and theme, but the director is downplaying it.

Caring business

The picture is an honest one as it still captures the chaos and the end of the 1960s. The director is downplaying it, but the director is downplaying it.
